

OBITUARY

John Guarino

John Guarino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guarino of North Main street, died at the General hospital last Friday, Jan. 27, following an operation for appendicitis performed a week before.

John, who was 15 years old, was a freshman in high school. He leaves, besides his parents, two brothers, William and Joseph, and one sister, Margaret.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Mary's church and interment took place at St. Mary's cemetery.

Was Born Here

The last rites for George H. Leopold of Medina, North Dakota, were held Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 25, from the Methodist church at Cleveland, North Dakota, the Rev. W. H. Farthing, pastor of the church, officiating. The services were attended by a large number of friends of the deceased and his family. The choir sang a number of hymns.

Burial was made in the Medina cemetery. Pallbearers were Walter Higgins, Harold Christopher, Ole Olegard, Julian Osterman, M. C. McGuire and E. A. Carter.

Mr. Leopold was born in Fairport August 21, 1852. He and Miss Addie Streeter of Rensselaer Falls were married Aug. 21, 1881. In 1906 they moved to Medina, N. D., where they have since made their home. There were seven children, which include Burton of Fairport; Chester of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mrs. Floyd Shahan of Leoti, Kansas; Mrs. J. S. Joblonski, Almond, and Herbert of Medina. Mrs. Emma Mixon died in 1929. There are eight grandchildren. The widow also survives.

John L. Allyn

Macedon is again called to mourn the loss of one of its oldest and most respected citizens. John A. Allyn died at his home west of Macedon village Saturday, Jan. 28, at the age of 88 years.

He was born in what has later become known as the Lawler house just outside Macedon village to the south, and was a life long resident of that town. Eighty-five years of his life were passed in one school district, and nearly 45 years in the home in which he died. This home is located on route 31, close to what was at one time one of the Rochester & Syracuse trolley crossings. He was one of the well known farmers of his community, an outstanding, sturdy citizen, just the type of citizen the world so much needs. He was never a seeker after public office, though at one time he served the town of Macedon as its overseer of the poor. He came of good old New England Connecticut stock, his father, Allen, having come from that state; and having been a millwright by trade, plying his business in the vicinity of Macedon many years.

He is survived by his wife, Fanny C. (Lacy) Allyn; one son, J. Byron Allyn; three grandchildren, Oscar, Burton and Elizabeth Allyn; one granddaughter, Mary Lou Allyn; all of Macedon. Also two brothers, Arthur of Kenmore, N. Y., and Sanford of Amsterdam, and a large number of nephews and nieces.

The funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at the home with Macedon Masonic Lodge in charge. Interment was made in Macedon cemetery.

Independent Merchants

To Hold Meeting

The Rochester Civic Defense league will hold a mass meeting for all independent merchants and their friends of East Rochester and surrounding towns on Monday, Feb. 6, at 8:30, at Imperial hall, West Commercial street East Rochester.

The league has obtained the services of Dr. Galen Starr Ross, who is now educational director for the New York state league of independent merchants and secretary of the Batavia and Genesee County Individual Merchants association, and is therefore well qualified to bring to the merchants the newest developments in state matters, including the latest information pertaining to the state chain tax bill which is now pending in Albany. He will give the first talk of this series at the East Rochester meeting.

Some of the subjects which Dr. Ross will touch upon are: What is to become of our money? What is the future of the youth of the country? Is the chain system business going to take us down? How are we to control our country?

Dr. Galen Starr Ross was formerly of Columbus, Ohio, and one time Democratic candidate for governor of that state.

Foresters Seat New Officers in Stations

Past High Chief Ranger Comes From Buffalo for Event

A jolly gathering of nearly 90 Foresters and friends witnessed the installation of officers of Court Perrin No. 4532 in I. O. O. F. hall last Thursday evening.

The installation was conducted by P. H. C. R. Burton Wilcox of Buffalo, assisted by P. H. C. R. John Yates, H. V. C. R. Edward Hillfinger and William Yates of Rochester. Court Deputy Albert Brown was in charge of the open meeting and James H. Bolton, who is a charter member of the court and for several years the financial secretary, introduced the high officers. Each responded gratefully with a few fitting remarks. Leon Sours, the new chief ranger, with well chosen words welcomed and thanked all present for their splendid co-operation in making the occasion so successful.

Following the installation an entertainment, as arranged by Guy Detro, was presented, consisting of the following numbers: Solo, Marjorie Brown, accompanied by Alice Odell; duet, Irving Steubing and S. J. Pitcher; recitation, Marjorie Brown; vocal solo, Irving Steubing; selection, violin and piano, Elizabeth and Helen Waterstraw; piano solo, Clara Moore; vocal solo, S. J. Pitcher; skit, "You Name It," Hiram Haybeck, Guy Detro.

Music for dancing was furnished by Glen Marsh and Miss Agnes Webb. Their ability to "keep 'em stepping" was well demonstrated. Refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cake were served plentifully and it was very apparent that everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

Court officers for 1933 are: Court deputy, Albert Brown; Jr. P. C. R., Wm. McIntosh; chief ranger, Leon Sours; vice C. R., Clinton Webster; recording secretary, Everett Waterstraw; financial secretary, James Bolton; treasurer, Grover Moore; orator, Guy Detro; organist, Doris Brown; Sr. woodward, Gay Grinton; Jr. woodward, Lewis Hess; Sr. beadle, Lewis Hutchinson; Jr. beadle, Warren Ellsworth.

Pittsford Potato And Cabbage School Program

The annual Farm Bureau potato and cabbage school will be held at Pittsford in the town hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 6, 7 and 8. This school has been well attended in past years. This year's program is very good and should be interesting. The program is as follows:

Monday morning, 9:30, February 6: Growing Cabbage, J. C. Raleigh; Cabbage Insects, C. R. Crosby.

Monday afternoon, 1:30, February 6: Growing Cabbage, J. C. Raleigh; Cabbage Diseases, C. C. Chupp.

Tuesday morning, February 7, 9:30: Growing Tomatoes, J. C. Raleigh; Growing Potatoes, E. V. Hardenburgh.

Tuesday afternoon, February 7, at 1:30: Potato Growing Problems, E. V. Hardenburgh; Tomato Diseases, C. C. Chupp.

Wednesday morning, February 8, at 9:30: Potato Insects, G. F. MacLeod; Potato Diseases, F. M. Blodgett.

Wednesday afternoon, February 8, 1:30: Potato Insects (continued), G. F. MacLeod; Potato Diseases (continued), F. M. Blodgett.

This meeting is open to the general public. Any person who so desires is welcome to attend.

Spartans Winners

The local Spartans, in three games scheduled, won all of them to make it a clean sweep for the week. On Tuesday, Jan. 24, they defeated the State Hospital quint. On Wednesday, Jan. 25, the Lyons St. Michael quint traveled to town only to turn back on the short end of a 46-23 score. On Thursday, Jan. 26, the Kaletas of Rochester were met and played in a much closer game than the score would indicate. At half time the Spartans led by a scant 10-9 score. Starting the third quarter the locals were in front by a 21-16 score and it looked as if they would have a hard time holding their margin. Things worked for the Spartans though, as they began shooting and making their shorts. The final score was 37-16.

Table with columns: Team, G., F., T. Rows include Spartans vs W. Wessertino, Spartans vs N. Messertino, Spartans vs Guard, Spartans vs DiRisio, Spartans vs Pomponio, Spartans vs Kaler, Spartans vs Zelasny, Spartans vs Nogaj, Spartans vs Deskers.

Rambling Celtics Win Couple Games

By Ed. Knight Coach Salmon's "Rambling Celtics" traveled to Rochester Friday night to trim the Monroe "Y" Wingfoots 45-43, in what turned out to be a close game.

The Celtics broke into scoring on the first tap and by the end of the first period were leading 14-2. Following this rest period E. Simon playing center for Monroe "Y" started in to roll up a few points for himself. If you don't believe me, ask Barrett; I am sure he will verify my statement for when the half closed the score was 20-20 with E. Simon having 18 points to his credit.

Frank Wood, given the task of holding E. Simon in the last half, did a good job, holding him to 6 points. Monihan, who played forward in the absence of Cotter, played a smooth and clever game, tallying 3 goals and 3 fouls for a total of 9 points, thus showing that he would have been a tower of strength to the High school team if he were given a fair chance. Barrett and Wood were high scorers for the Celtics with 18 and 13 points respectively, while E. Simon with 24 points starred for the losers.

Table with columns: Team, G., F., T. Rows include Monihan, Fitzgerald, Bacon, Barrett, Wood, Total, Wingfoots, C. Simon, A. Weis, J. Weis, E. Simon, W. Knauf, McBride, Mosher.

The "Rambling Celtics" scored their eleventh victory of the season last Saturday night by a score of 37 to 31 in the preliminary to the Central vs. the Brooklyn Whirlwind game.

The crowd of about 1000 were given a rough and tumble game of basketball as the Celtics gave Miller's All-Stars a 37-31 jolt in the monkey cage. The game was a thriller from the start if you like to see a rough game with plenty of bodily contact and some hard spills. The score saw-sawed back and forth with Fairport in the lead at the close of the period 5-4.

Fairport during the first half played a rather clean game, using no rough methods in order to score, but the All-Stars were just the opposite and proceeded to give the Fairport lads a good roughing up with Dishner doing more than his share and throwing discretion to the four winds. Fitzgerald was unable to check Dishner's roughness because of his light weight. The Celtics left the court at half time at the long end of a 17-14 count.

The last half of the game held a few surprises for both the All-Stars and the fans. The quarter opened with Frank Wood assigned to stop Dishner and his unnecessary roughness. I can honestly say that Frank did a beautiful job, for Dishner found out that Frank didn't push easily and that the floor came up to meet him too often. Not only this but his shirt seemed to be disappearing. He was finally taken out for he had no fight left in him and retired amid the booing of the fans.

I hope that you who read this will not judge Frank too harshly for his conduct for I am willing to vouch for him as being a fellow who can conduct himself as a gentleman.

The All-Stars with a new burst of life, pushed, pulled and banged their way to within one point of a tie at the end of the quarter. The last quarter opened with the Celtics going into the game with the roar of a mad cougar and amid the cheers of the fans the All-Stars began to be falling stars, for those small boys from Fairport began to get rough.

The sudden change in temperament completely upset the All-Stars, with Fairport taking advantage of this and romping into a six point lead at the final whistle. Cotter playing forward for the Celtics was the big scoring gun, when he looped 8 field goals from any angle or spot on the court; he also made a foul for a total of 17 points. Fine, with a total of 12 points starred for the losers.

Table with columns: Team, G., F., T. Rows include Cotter, Fitzgerald, Barnhart, Barrett, Wood, Total, Miller's All-Stars, Hirsch, Lipsky, Goodmen, P. Miller, Sendow, Dishner.

EDUCATION

Continued from page 1

cess received consideration from the speaker. This was treated from several angles, among which was stressed the fact that money as a measuring stick of value has taken a strong grip on men. The divine scripture that man shall not live by bread alone has been lost sight of. Mr. Coffee said: "It is not so much a matter of frozen assets as it is a matter of frozen character. Money as a goal of achievement is a hollow mockery, its glory is transitory and not lasting as are double deeds which help to shape a full life. A man does not realize a full measure of life even with great power. Greatness may be defined by the extent of service rendered to mankind, the greater its spread and the greater number benefited, the greater the benefaction. The accumulation of wealth is not an evidence of greatness."

Mr. Coffee continued: "The greatest blessings and the most woeful calamities come from a source over which we have little or no control." Before concluding his talk Mr. Coffee gave some attention to the duty we owe to our posterity. Every effort should be directed along lines that will help the unborn to attain even greater height of learning than is our heritage from the generations that have preceded us. We should not be regressive but progressive. Misery and poverty can only be banished by creating a higher degree of understanding among men. Through education alone is this possible. Therefore, the widest scope in method of education of the young should be employed."

Education of the youth is not a local question, rather a national one. The highest standard of Americanism may be obtained when every youth in the nation shall receive an even chance. People do not want to go backward with education. Every parent desires his child to be properly trained. This applies to every parent in the land, north, south, east and west. It does not follow that those educated in a locality remain where they are educated. In most cases they go elsewhere. This proves that the system of education should be universal, so all should be developed to what we shall term a national standard.

At the present time much agitation is going on about the matter of state aid for schools. Much depends on what the legislature does with the school problem. Nothing should be done that will destroy the results built up after years of study. The present condition will not last permanently. Some time or other the depression will pass. Surely there are none who think it will be lasting, therefore if economy is necessary to conduct the business of the government, it may be better to make the curtailment in other directions that are not as important as is the matter of the training of the youth of the nation.

Andrew Lynch will speak next Monday night. He will discourse on the life of Abraham Lincoln.

East Penfield

Mrs. Frances Johnson, Cor.

East Penfield, Jan. 31—Eugene, Martha and Helen Fuller were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kinsella in Rochester Saturday and Sunday.

Eight ladies of the East Penfield church attended the missionary meeting held at the Parsells Avenue Baptist church in Rochester last Thursday.

Mrs. Julius Goers of Irondequoit was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Cook, from Tuesday until Friday.

Mrs. Eugene Vane and two daughters Marion and Doris were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. H. L. Cook, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Johnson of Lockport were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson from Thursday until Saturday.

Gordon Herrick entertained a committee meeting of the Christian Endeavor society at his home Friday evening.

Mrs. Emma Bauer of Wolcott was a guest of Mrs. Walter Johnson and Etta Bauer Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Woods of Rochester was entertained at the home of George and Etta Bauer Saturday, also Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Frost of Fair Haven.

Jeanette Gifford was home from Genesee Normal from Thursday until Sunday.

Lewis E. Whittleton

Lewis E. Whittleton, aged 69 years, a resident of Atlantic avenue, Walworth, passed away at his home Monday morning. He is survived by his wife; five daughters, Mrs. David Porrey, Mrs. Wesley Porrey, Mrs. Isaac VanHall, Mrs. Cornelius Maslec, Miss Dorothy Whittleton, one son, Ralph; two brothers, two sisters and two grandchildren. The funeral will be held at the home this afternoon and interment will be made in the cemetery at Furnaceville.

PENFIELD NEWS

Penfield Mrs. Elsie Newman, Cor.

Penfield, Jan. 31—James J. McGowan has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. George Leonard, Miss Ora Barr, Mrs. George Becker and Mrs. Martha McQuoid attended a card party at the Masonic temple in Rochester Monday evening.

Mrs. Adele Struble was chosen as a member of the cast for "Naughty Marietta" to be given by the Rochester Civic Opera at the Eastman theater on the evenings of Feb. 3 and 4. The officers and teachers of the Advent church school held a meeting Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howe and family of Syracuse spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Urckfitz and family.

Mrs. George Kitts of Fairport visited Mrs. David Kitts recently.

Little Miss Madeline Clark entertained seven of her little girl friends Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her ninth birthday.

The regular meeting of the Parent-teacher association will be held Tuesday evening, Feb. 7, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the High school. Founders day will be observed. Mrs. Ralph Brodie of Albion, state representative of the P. T. A., will be the guest speaker and will speak on "The Ideals and Purpose of the P. T. A." There will be special music and refreshments will be served.

Henry Swetlik entertained his contract bridge club at his home Friday evening.

Mrs. Andrew H. Bown has been confined to her home the past week due to illness.

Penfield grange has issued a year book, giving the program for each meeting during 1933, and indicating an unusually interesting year for the members. Social sessions are liberally interspersed, and opportunity is given for consideration of many of the questions of the day now before the public. The program was arranged by the lecturer, Mrs. Martha McQuoid. The master of the grange is William Somerville, and the other officers are: Overseer, Henry Rothfus; steward, Perry Rothfus; assistant steward, Harold Scribner; chaplain, Mrs. Frank Rambert; treasurer, George Bahler; secretary, Mrs. Carlyle Miller; gate keeper, Victor Scribner; Ceres, Gladys Scribner; Pomona, Jeanette Northrop; Flora, Eleanor Killian; lady assistant steward, Elizabeth Rothfus; pianist, Helen J. Watson; press correspondent, Mrs. George Becker; librarian, Mrs. Grace Chapman; insurance director, H. O. Weatherlow; automobile secretary, Ora Rothfus; trustees, William Hill, Edward F. Robins, Perry Rothfus.

Mrs. Martha McQuoid spent the week end in Warsaw, the guest of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Scott.

Mrs. George Cooper was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Crawford S. Porter, on Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Gustner has returned after spending several days in Boston, N. Y., having been called there by the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. Paul DeBach spent Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter DeCook of Brighton.

Frederick James, who is in Strong Memorial hospital, is improving.

Mrs. Mary Bourne is visiting relatives in Cleveland.

Mrs. Tom Yost, who underwent an operation in St. Mary's hospital recently, is not so well at the present writing.

Howard Jr. and Ruth Elaine, children of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sherman of East Rochester, are ill. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman formerly resided in Penfield.

Troop 170, Penfield, is fortunate at this time in having a large number of applicants for Tenderfoot rank in Scouting, boys who only recently have become twelve as well as a waiting list of several boys who lack only a few months of being of eligible age. There is more pep and enthusiasm in the troop as a whole than at any previous time.

Last Sunday a number of young couples from Penfield, East Roch-

Penfield Center Dorothy Schilstra, Cor.

Penfield Center, Jan. 31—Mrs. Amos Schilstra is still on the sick list. Mrs. Charles Lanning and son Louis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hipp Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rima and daughter Shirley and Mrs. B. Straub spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Wolslager of Rochester.

Callers at the Schilstra home the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. William Brower, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Woitte and daughter Florence, all of Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks of West Webster.

Arthur and David Hipp, who have been ill, are now convalescing satisfactorily.

Miss Loreta Miller was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Englert visited Mr. and Mrs. William Mack Sunday afternoon.

George Spink is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Leon Rima spent Wednesday with Mrs. George Kirchner of Rochester.

Mrs. Burton Lanning and young son of Rochester and her mother, Mrs. George Gutaker of East Rochester spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. William Hipp.

Those who tried Regents at Webster High school under the supervision of Miss Vyskical passed with the following standings: Alva Busch, arithmetic 96, English 76, history; Ruby Schilstra, arithmetic 96, spelling 88; Elsie Dorwald, arithmetic 81, spelling 87.

ter and Rochester were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jones Jr. at a "treasure hunt" at the "Cobbles." Partners were drawn for the hunt and after lots of excitement the treasure was found in the abandoned well on the old Bob Worley farm. The hunters then adjourned to the Boy Scout cabin for a picnic lunch.

Mrs. Ruth Braman has resumed her duties at East Rochester High school after having been ill for several weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Gaston.

Several friends of J. B. Sexton, formerly of Penfield, gave him a surprise party at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hastings of Elmwood avenue on Thursday evening, the occasion being his 80th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schermerhorn celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday last by entertaining a few relatives at a 6 o'clock dinner.

The Penfield Local of the Dairy-mens Co-operative association held its annual meeting in the High school auditorium Friday night, Jan. 27. The officers of the association are: Charles L. Harris, president; C. J. Dye, secretary-treasurer. William Nichols, William Rissinger, William Weaver, Roy Dennis and Charles L. Harris are the directors. Community singing was led by Dr. J. B. Deuel with Miss Frances Cullen presiding at the piano. Messrs. Wolfe favored the group with musical selections, and Mrs. Anna Rothfus entertained the group with readings. Refreshments were served. About 75 members were present.

Joseph A. Dale of Whalen road died at his home there Tuesday evening of last week from an attack of pneumonia. He came to Penfield from Rome, N. Y., in 1907 and had since lived here with his brother, A. S. Dale who survives him. He was 85 years of age and for several years had been in failing health and very feeble. The funeral was held Thursday at 2:30 from the chapel of Smith and Lotze in Webster, with burial at Rome.

Frank Rheinbold and son Richard of Whalen road and another son Harry of Fairport drove to Waverly on Saturday to attend the funeral of an uncle, returning Sunday.

RUBBER STAMPS—We furnish rubber stamps, any size, form or wording, dates, cast bronze signs, number plates, in fact almost anything in the shape of a marking device. Herald-Mail office.

COZY FLAT TO RENT

Five nice rooms, newly painted, papered and renovated. Plenty of light and air, yet well protected from storms. Just right for man and wife or a couple of ladies.

Modern conveniences, private entrances front and rear.

EASILY ADAPTED FOR USE AS DRESSMAKING OR BEAUTY PARLOR

Somebody desiring to economize will find their opportunity here. May be seen any time. Ready for occupancy now. Located over the Herald-Mail office. Inquire here.

Fairport Publishing Co., Inc. Phone 237 - W 35 West Ave.